

Her mother's family lived in Oswestry and she went to Morda School. In 1933 she could not go to school as her sister had chickenpox. I have 16 letters that were written to her from her class- corrected in red and beautiful handwriting.

Dear Bonnie,

I am sorry your sister is very poorly. I hope she will soon be better so that you will be able to come back to school. On Thursday we had our lessons out of doors.

When we were on our Whit^esum^{er} holidays, I went to Dyⁿcl^ys Hill and had a good time.

We have had lovely weather and I have got all my arms burnt.

Yours very affectionately,
Barbara Davies.

Dear Bonnie,

I hope you have not got chickenpox. You will have to tell your sister not to play with the chickens so much.

I have been trying to breed some young pigeons, and one kind person told me that they were like baby ducks.

If you want to hatch large numbers of chickens, put ^{some eggs} them in a green house, and weather like the last day or ^{two} ~~two~~ would manage to bring them out.

Yours affectionately
E. Lloyd.
